

This would be one of the daughters of John and Isabella Farquharson:

Likely the eldest, Elizabeth, aged ca. 23. (bapt. 1 oct. 1792)

Or the second eldest, Jane, aged ca. 19.

Another daughter is Isabel, aged ca. 16. (bapt. 15 March 1799).

It is not known if there were other daughters. John Farquharson has a farm on the road leading from Brook House to Cobequid (Truro). It is just a few hundred yards north of the New Preston Road. (See Louisa's Neighbourhood.)

As Mrs. Isabella Farquharson died only nine months ago (20 Dec. 1814--three days after the death of Ebenezer Allen Jr. and 11 days after that of Margaret Floyer) it would appear that the job of running the house has fallen to Elizabeth; for it seems that Louisa suggests as much when she speaks of going "to Miss Farquharson."

(Elizabeth Farquharson m. 20 July 1819 William Candeach. Jane Farquharson m. 23 Feb. 1820 John Farquhar--b. ca. 1794 at Elgin, Morayshire, Scotland, d. 25 Oct. 1846. Jane d. 20 Nov. 1821, aged 25. Isabel Farquharson m. 28 Dec. 1824, at Dartmouth, James McNab.)

(1794-1846)
 JOHN FARQUHAR was the brother of Alexander #88 (1797-18),
 father of James, father of Herman,
 father of Alex and Hugh.

Probably John Farquhar was in N.S.

John Farquharson Sr., aged ca. 51.

B. ca.1764 in Morayshire, Scotland. M. to Isabella (last name not known--b. ca.1758, d. 20 Dec. 1814). He had come to Nova Scotia by 1 Dec. 1790, the date of baptism of their oldest known child, Alexander. Along with John F. Salter, John Farquharson is an administrator of the estate of Margaret Floyer. (See also S5n1) (D. 11 June 1842.)
